The Lady's Museum Vol 1 Charlotte Lennox

Published in 11 issues between 1760 and 1761 and believed largely to be written and edited by Charlotte Lennox (it was marketed as “by the Author of The Female Quixote“), the Lady’s Museum educated and informed its readership through a variety of media including science, satire, letters to and from the editor, poetry, translation, history, philosophy, geography, travel writing, educational treatises, and the first serialized novel, The History of Harriot and Sophia, which Lennox would later publish as the novel Sophia. - Summary by Kelly Plante
